WORK EXPERIENCE

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Investigative Data Reporter

Pittsburgh, PA
July 2022 – present

- Co-led a team of reporters, graduate students, and international media partners in publishing With Every Breath, a joint investigation with ProPublica into the Philips Respironics CPAP recall
 - Conducted extensive data analysis, employing advanced programming techniques such as web scraping to extract insights into corporate and regulatory failures
 - Developed and maintained project infrastructure to organize and manage all reporting, including Freedom of Information Act requests for litigation against the Food and Drug Administration
 - Rigorously documented all reporting methodology to ensure efficiency and accuracy throughout the project
- Led multiple investigative projects on critical real estate issues, uncovering systemic neglect, financial mismanagement, and regulatory violations in both residential and commercial properties, resulting in increased public awareness, legal actions, and community revitalization efforts
- Produced 25% of the Post-Gazette's Sunday front-page centerpieces in 2023, along with dozens of local and national stories
- Foster a data-driven mindset within the entire newsroom, leading training sessions for reporters, editors and summer interns on incorporating data and investigative techniques to strengthen traditional reporting

Medill Investigative Lab Data Reporter

Washington, DC
January 2022 – June 2022

- Contributed database construction and management, investigative research and extensive fact-checking to Shadow Diplomats, a ProPublica and ICIJ investigation of volunteer diplomats known as honorary consuls
- Applied technical skills such as database management and API programming to extract corporate records for an investigation of registered agents for The Washington Post's award-winning Pandora Papers series
- Supported document review and verification for Broken Doors, a Pulitzer-winning podcast from The Washington Post
